

THE ELBA CLIPPER

ELBA, ALABAMA, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1943

NUMBER 29

TIMES HAVE CHANGED, but Christmas remains unchanged—the year's outstanding holiday in the timeless cycle of love and good fellowship. In the same old familiar way it gives us pleasure to wish for you in this season of 1943 the most in Christmas cheer and enjoyment.

ALABAMA WATER SERVICE CO.

Santa may have new modes of transportation in his bag of tricks, but our wish is that this 1943 pack include a great big package of old-time Christmas cheer, addressed to you, dear friend—to YOU.

WHITMAN DRUG COMPANY

WHAT matter if Santa comes in a jeep, just so it's Santa Claus? And it IS Santa Claus! And this IS Christmas. May the 1943 season be an exceptionally happy one for you and your family.

THE ELBA THEATRE

TO EACH AND ALL

May your Christmas of 1943 approach in joyousness the carefree Christmases of early years when you dreamed of the coming of St. Nicholas.

KINSTON BETA CLUB
INDUCTS NEW MEMBERS

On December 9, 1943, the Kinston Beta Club inducted four new members. The initiation ceremony was held in the high school auditorium before a large audience.

The following pledges were inducted: Bonnie Davis, Betty Sue Gentry, Doris Speigner and Fannie Lou Clark.

A large Beta Club emblem had been drawn upon the auditorium floor and the officers were seated thereon according to their part on the program.

The opening address was given by the president, James Ellis, after which Robert Wise gave a report on "What Beta Club Is and What It Stands For."

The three cardinal principles of Beta Club were explained by the following officers: Achievement—Alec Davis, vice-president; Character—Rue Nelle Qualls, reporter; Leadership—Sue Donaldson, secretary.

The president administered the pledge to the new members, after which their certificates and membership pins were awarded. Mr. L.

L. Still, President of Alabama Chapters of Beta Club and Superintendent of Education of Covington County, delivered the charge to the new members. After Mr. Still's able address, the entire membership arose and sang the "Beta Club Song."

Miss Doris Richardson is sponsor of the Kinston Beta Club this year.
